The Pirates made a game rally in the eighth. Hyatt, batting for Cooper, whaled a home run into the right end of the grandstand. Mensor singled, Carey doubled, but Mensor was pinched at third. Viox singled, scoring Carey, Wagner's hard hit got away from Doyle, and Miller scored Viox. Wilson then popped up a fly and Matty struck out Byrne. Wagner continued his marvelous exhibition of baseball by pretty stabs and faultless throwing.

Arthur Shafer, regular shortstop for the Glants, was suspended by Manager McGraw to-day when he failed to show up for morning practice or for the game in the afternoon. It is believed to be more evenly balanced.

HOME RUNS HELP BROOKLYN

Brooklyn, N. Y., May 16.—The daily quota of home runs was credited to Wheat, Cutshaw and Konetchy in today's game between the Dodgers and St. Louis, which the locals won by 6 to 5. Wheat's drive, the second in as many days, went over the fence.

The visitors started things with a runs, scoring three runs in the first inning, but Curtis tightened up and held them safe for the remainder of the game until the ninth, when a rally threatened to tie the score. In this inning intree striples and a sacrifice fly scored two. Curtis then caught Koney napping off first and ended the rally.
